THE CROOKED FOOT-PATH.

BY OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.

Ah! here it is, the sliding rail
That marks the old remembered spot—
The gap that struck our school-boy trail,
The crooked path across the lot.

It left the road by school and church,
A penciled shadow, nothing more,
That parted from the silver birch,
And ended at the farm-house door.

No line or compass placed its plan;
With frequent bends to left or right,
In aimless, wayward curves it ran,
But always kept the door in sight.

The gabled porch, the woodbine green,
The broken millstone at the mill,
Though many a road may stretch between
The truant child can see them still.

No rocks across the pathway lie,
No fallen trunk is o'er it thrown,
And yet it winds, we know not why,
And turns as if for tree or stone.

Perhaps some lover trod the way,
With shaking knee or leaping heart—
And so, it often runs astray
With sinuous sweep or sudden start.

Or one, perchance, with clouded brain,
From some unholy banquet reeled,
And since, our devious steps maintain
His track across the trodden field.

Nay, deem not thus—no earth born will
Could ever trace a faultless line;
Our truest steps are human still,
To walk unswerving were divine!

Truants from love, we dream of wrath;
Oh, rather let us trust the more!
Through all the wanderings of the path,
We still can see our Father's door.

A CALL FOR ENTERPRISING MEN.

HOPEWELL, BEDFORD Co., Pa.,
June, 26, 1867.

Editors Journal of Mining:

GENTLEMEN:—I have frequently been requested by a nnmber of my friends to call public attention to this interesting portion of our State, through the medium of your valuable journal, which has, doubtless, been the instrument through which more true and valuable information has been imparted to the American public, than perhaps any other source. Owing, however, to the rapid and startling events which have followed each other during the last five or six years, I have, up to this time, deferred doing so, believing that the public mind was not in a situation to calmly look into and examine the peculiar advantages of any particular locality of our great mineral State, until the important issues in which we were involved were properly adjusted. That time having arrived when the supremacy of our government has been fully established, and the indefatigable energy, that is characteristic of this great nation in peace or war, is now ready to be directed, and is anxiously inquiring for information as to where capital and industry can be the most advantageously employed in developing the hidden resources of our vast country. It is to this class of our citizens that I wish particularly to call attention to this hitherto neglected portion of our State, as having all the natural advantages and resources that can be desired to open up a great field of enterprise, and which must eventually become one of the most extensive iron manufacturing districts in the State. It has been said "that a prophet has no honor in his own country," the same may be applied with equal truth to sections of this country, which really possesses more wealth than the same breadth of territory, embracing the richest gold mines of California. But, for some unexplained cause, the peculiar advantages that nature has deposited at our own doors are overlooked, and the glittering gold fields of distant sections of our country are selected by our enterprising young men, as the field of their future operations, and, in their haste to make money, they blunder over the seemingly more humble deposits of nature, to which, if they could be attracted, and infuse the same amount of energy in developing, would most assuredly, in a majority of instances, find themselves more comfortable in a pecuniary point of view, and have the satisfaction of knowing that they contributed more to the interests of their fellow-men and their country by helping to build up our manufacturing interests at home, than they possibly could have done had they followed the "ignis fatuus" contemplated by so many. This peculiar section of country, possessing all the advantages to which I allude, lies principally along the valley from Huntingdon, in Huntingdon county, beyond Bedford, in Bedford county, to the Maryland line, and even beyond that. Immense beds of brown hematite and also fossiliferous ores run through the entire valley, a distance of, perhaps, more than eighty miles. It has been estimated by scientific geologists that there is most certainly a sufficient amount of ore lying between these points mentioned to keep 100 furnaces in operation that many years; and, strange as it may appear, up to this time there is but one furnace in the whole valley, and that is situated at this place. In order to give some idea of the quality is only necessary to state that the principal part of the metal made here the last year, has been used in the manufacture of steel, for which purpose it is said to be peculiarly adapted. As another evidence of the estimation in which this ore is held by those who have tested it, I would say that a company from Danville, Montour county, Pennsylvania, are now mining and shipping it from this region a distance of 200 miles, and we believe the transportation is altogether by railroad. If they can ship ore advantageously, which they certainly do, that distance, you can readily perceive the advantage there would be in the manufacture of the raw material on the ground where we have the very best of coal, limestone, water-power, and the all-important ore; indeed, all the facilities and requisites to insure a superior as well as cheap iron. And last, but not least by any means, we have the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad, traversing, as it were, the heart of this valley, containing all these mineral resources a distance of 43 miles. I might, indeed, fill columns of your paper with this important subject, but I have now transcended the limits I intended. Hoping this may find favor with that class of enterprising men, for whom it is more particularly intended, and they may avail themselves of those golden opportunities to enrich themselves, and their country with them, in developing by their energy this rich field of deposits; and in the future, watching these important developments which must and certainly will take place, I may, perhaps, be enabled to give you a more detailed account of this region of country in regard to this important subject. I would respectfully refer persons desirous of having any further information in relation to this region to John Fulton, Esq., Resident and Mining Engineer at Saxton, Bedford county Pennsylvania. JOHN F. LOWRY.

WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MORTALITY AT ANDERSONVILLE?

There are two sides to every question, and it does not often happen that all the law and the testimony are on one side.—The Lancaster Intelligencer, says, an immense amount of noise has been made about the great mortality among the Union prisoners at Andersonville, and a vast deal of indignation against the rebels has been thereby excited. One of the consequences of the calmer condition of our country is the opportunity which is given for hearing both sides of different questions. Just now the subject of the Exchange of Prisoners during the war is exciting attention. We published a letter from Gen. Robert Ould a few days since on that subject. Below we give another still more explicit and decided. The responsibility for the great destruction of human life in the Southern prisoners will soon be placed where it belongs. Stanton and Butler are guilty, before God, and man, of having deliberately sacrificed multitudes of our men who might have been saved. The time will speedily come when this whole subject will we fully investigated, and then the people will justly decide the blame between the different parties who are responsible.

THE EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS—ANOTHER LETTER FROM EX-COMMISSIONER OULD.

Gen. Robert Ould has written the following letter to one of the editors of The National Intelligencer:

RICHMOND, July 18, 1867.

My Dear Sir:—I have read the remarkable discussion in the House. Mr. Eldridge is substantially right in what he said. I offered early in August all the sick and wounded prisoners we had without requiring equivalents for them. I would have made the offer earlier, but for the fact that some considerable time before I had made an offer of exchange, man for man, to which I could get no response. I waited for a response until early in August, and failing to receive one, I then made the offer above named, at the same time urging haste on the part of the United States Government, as the mortality among the Federal prisoners was very great. During the Fall I again and again urged haste, giving the same reason. I informed the Federal authorities that if they would send transportation for 15,000 men to the mouth of the Savannah river I would furnish that number of sick and wounded, and that I would fill up the deficiency with well prisoners. I did not require a corresponding delivery of our prisoners, though I expressed the desire that they might be sent. From early in August we were not only ready, but anxious to make this delivery.—It was our purpose, as well as our offer, to continue the delivery of the sick and wounded at all the depots of prisoners, and upon the terms mentioned; that is, without requiring equivalents. Transportation was not sent until December. The United States authorities brought in that month some 3,000 prisoners to the mouth of the Savannah River, and received over 13,000 in return, many of whom were well men. The 3,000 delivered presented as melancholy a spectacle as Andersonville ever disclosed. Most, if not all of them, had been brought from Elmira. Some died between Elmira and Baltimore—many between Baltimore and Savannah. I do not believe ten per cent. of the number are alive now. All these facts are known to Federal officers. Rebels may lie, but yet the fact is fully established by other evidence that the Federal authorities sent 3,000 and received 13,000. They would have received more if there had been accommodation. Why was transportation sent to Savannah for the prisoners unless I had agreed to deliver them? Why were 13,000 delivered and only 3,000 received if I insisted on receiving equivalents? There is nothing in the published correspondence referred to by Gen. Butler which, in any manner, contests any one of the facts I have mentioned. General Mulford will sustain everything I have herein written. He is a man of honor and courage, and, I do not think, will hesitate to tell the truth. I think it would be well for you to make an appeal to him, as it has become a question of veracity. Gen. Butler says the proposition was made in the Fall, and that 7,000 prisoners were delivered. It was in August, and over 13,000 were delivered. If you will get Pollard's "Lost Cause," and refer to the chapter on exchange, there you will find the whole question accurately stated. Every word of the chapter is true, so far as it pretends to give facts. The book was published by subscription, by Treat & Co., of New York. You can make public any portion of this letter. I defy contradiction as to any statement I have made, and challenge scrutiny. I will prove every word by Federal testimony. Who, then, is responsible for the suffering of Andersonville during the period of its most deadly mortality, from August to January? Yours, truly,

RO. OULD.

A LOBSTER'S REVENGE.—"An amusing, but no doubt painful incident, called 'The Lobster's Revenge,' found among the trials before the Paris Tribunal of Correctional Police, in 1852, was that against a dealer in fish, who was summoned by a Madame Grebuchet, who claimed thirty francs damages for the injury caused to her nose by one of the defendant's lobsters. The plaintiff, wishing to regale her husband with a delicacy for his dinner, went to the market and was bargaining for a lobster, which she took up in her hand, but threw it down again, saying it was not fresh. The fishwife protested that it was alive, but Madame Grebuchet asserted the contrary. To satisfy herself that such was the case, she a second time applied her nose to it, when the lobster, as if in defense of its owner's veracity, seized hold of Madame Grebuchet's nose with its claw, and stuck fast. She screamed for assistance, but instead of immediately rendering it the dealer and her companions around burst out into a laugh, and it was some minutes before the nose of the lady could be released. The fishwoman, in her defense maintained that she was not to blame and that the mischief was solely caused by the imprudence of Madame Grebuchet in applying her prominent feature so closely to the lobster's claw when she had been told that it was alive; and the Tribunal, taking the same view of the case, dismissed the complaint, and the plaintiff ordered to pay costs."

GREAT MORAL IDEAS.—Sending drunkards to the Legislature to pass prohibitory laws.

Punishing sober men to get good examples for drunkards.

Destroying the property of tax-payers to gratify the destructive propensities of those who pay no taxes.

Enfranchising negroes to keep a minority party in power against the will of the people.

Obtaining men and money by false pretences, to preserve the Union and using the same to destroy it.

Keeping thieves and Robbers in office and honest men in Prisons.

Procuring false witnesses to convict and cause an innocent christian woman to be executed.

Destroying the Union to preserve the Radical party.

Substituting the teachings of the Devil for the word of God.

CATTLE for fattening next fall should have the advantage of good pasture during the summer, that they may have a good start. Good, pure water, with access thereto, is highly important, as is also a regular allowance of salt, or, what is better, constant access to it—no need to fear of their eating too much, as instinct will guide them in their wants. Milch cows should be cared for not to let them fall off in their milk late in the month. A feed of cut grass, clover, corn, millet, &c., morning and evening will tend to keep up a generous flow.

A YOUNG MINISTER HUGGED AGAINST HIS WILL.

A most ludicrous scene transpired in a place not a thousand miles from the city of Louisville, one night recently, which, though a little annoying to the parties immediately concerned, was yet so innocent and funny that we c nnot refrain from giving the general outlines, suppressing names of course.

Two sprightly and beautiful young ladies were visiting their cousin, another sprightly and beautiful young lady, who, like her guests, was of that happy age which turns everything into fun and merriment. If the truth were told we fear that we would have to record the fact that these three young misses were just a little bit fast. They were fond of practical jokes, and were continually playing all sorts of mad pranks with each other. All three occupied a room on the ground floor, and cuddled up together in one bed.

Two of the young ladies attended a party on the night in question, and did not get home till half past twelve o'clock at night. As it was late they concluded not to disturb the household, so they quietly stepped into their room through the low open window.

In about half an hour after they had left for the party a young Methodist minister called at the house where they were staying and craved a night's lodging, which of course was cheerfully granted. As ministers always have the best of everything, the old lady put him to sleep in the best room, and the young lady (Fannie) who had not gone to the party was entrusted to the duty of sitting up for the absent ones and of informing them of the change of rooms. She took up her post in the parlor, and as the night was sultry, sleep overcame her, and she departed on an excursion to the land of dreams.

We will not return to the young ladies who had gone into their room through the window. By the dim light of the moon-beams as they struggled through the curtains, the young ladies were enabled to descry the outline of Fannie (as they supposed) ensconced in the middle of the bed. They saw more, to-wit—a pair of boots. The truth flashed upon them both at once. They saw it all. Fannie had set them in the room to give them a good scare. They put their heads together and determined to turn the tables on her. Presently they disrobed, and stealthily as cats they took their position at each side of the bed. At the given sign both jumped into bed, one on each side of the unconscious parson, screaming, "Oh what a man!" They gave the bewildered minister such a promiscuous hugging and tousling as few persons are able to brag of in the course of a lifetime.

The noise of this proceeding awoke the old lady, who was sleeping in an adjoining room. She comprehended the situation at once, and rushing to the room she opened the door and exclaimed! "My God, garls, it is a man! it is a man sure enough!"

There was one prolonged, consolidated scream; a flash of muslin through the door, and all was over.

The best thing of the joke is the minister took the whole thing in earnest. He would listen to no apologies the old lady could make for the girls. He would hear no excuse, but he solemnly folded his clerical robes around him and silently stole away.

Query—was he mad at the girls, or—at the old woman?

JOSH BILLINGS ON GONGS.

Josh Billings relateth his first experience with the gong thusly: I never can eradicate holi from mi memory the sound ov the furst gong I rver herd. I was sitting on the front step ov a tavern in the city of Bufferlo, pensively smokin. The sun was goin to bed, and the hevins for an hour was blushin at the performance. The Ery Kanal, with its golden waters, was on its way to Albany, and I was perusin the line botes a flotin by, and thinken ov Italy (where I use to liv) and her gondolers and gallus wimmin. My entire sole was as it were, in a swet. I wanted to klime, I felt grate, I actually grew.—There are things in this life tu big tu be trifled with; there are times when a man brakes luce from hisself, when he sees sperrets, when he kin almos tuch the mune, and feels as tho he kud fill both hands with the stars of heven, and almost sware he was a bank president. That's what ailed me. But the Korse ov tru luv never did run smoothe, (this is Shaksper's opinyun too). Just as I was duing my best—dummer, dummer, spat, bang, beller, crash, roar, ram dummer, dummer, whang, rip, rare rally, dummer, dummer, dum—with a tremenjus jump I struck the center ov the sidewalk with anuther I kleared the gutter and with anuther I stood in the middle of the street, snorting like an Indian pony at a band of music. I gazed in wild despare at the tavern stand, mi hart swelled up big as a outdoor oven, mi teeth was as luce as a string of bedes. I thot all ov the crokery in the the tavern had fell down. I thot of Gabrel and his horn. I wos jest on the pint of thinken of somethin else when the landlord kum out of the frunt stupe ov the tavern, holden by a string the bottom ov a old brass kittle. He kawled me gently with his hand. I went slola and slola up tu him, he kammed mi feres, he said it was a gong, I saw the kussed thing, he said supper was reddy, he axed me ef I wud hav black or green tee, and I sed I wud.

"WAKE UP, SOLOMON!"

"Wake up, Solomon. It's time to get up," shouted young Harry to his sluggish brother one fine July morning, at he jumped gaily out of bed, and began dressing.

"What time is it?" yawned Solomon.

"Nearly six," replied his brother; "and mind, Sol., we start at seven."

"It's too early to get up yet," said Solomon. "I'll snooze till a quarter to seven."

So the lazy fellow turned round, and was soon fast asleep again. When he awoke his room looked very full of sunshine. The house was very quiet, too, and rubbing his eyes, he mutter ed,—

"I wonder if it is seven o'clock yet?"

Crawling out of bed, he dressed himself and went down stairs. There was nobody in the parlor, nobody in the sitting room, nobody in the dining room.

"What can be the matter?" thought Solomon, as he rang the bell for the maid to bring him his breakfast.

"Where are they all?" he asked, as soon as she appeared.

"Gone to the city," replied the maiden, "They started two hours ago."

"Why, what time is it?"

"Nine o'clock."

"Nine o'clock! But why didn't they call me?"

"You were called at six o'clock, and wouldn't get up. Your father would'nt have you called again. He said he would teach you a lesson."

"It's too bad!" cried Solomon, dropping his head upon the table and bursting into tears.

It was too bad that the lazy boy did not learn the lesson of that morning so as to turn over a new leaf in the book of life. I am sorry to say he did not. He loved sleep. He hated work. He was the slave of lazy habits, and is to this day.

What sort of a man will Solomon Slowcoach be? Well, if he don't die of idleness before he becomes a man, he will be a shiftless good-for-nothing fellow. He won't have any knowledge, because he is too lazy to study; nor any money, because he is too lazy to work; nor any good character, because he is too lazy to conquer himself.

Wake up, Solomon! Wake up, my dear boy! Shake off the chains that are upon you! If you don't wake up you will soon be a lost boy. Wake up, Solomon, wake up! If you don't, you will make shipwreck of your life.

THE DILIGENT WOMAN.—She riseth in the morning betimes, and as the lark singeth to his mate, so she maketh a joyful noise in all her house.

She maketh up her bed; and beateth the pillows thereof; and like as an eagle stirreth up her nest, so she stirreth up the feathers, and spreadeth out the sheets, and layeth the blankets apart.

She layeth her hand to the wash-tub, rubbeth upon the board, making clean the fine linen; her hands take fast hold of the wringer, and by the turning the crank the water thereof is pressed out.

She clotheth her family with pure garments, when she has made them smooth with a hot iron, and by reason thereof her husband is made comely when he sitteth among the chief men, or walketh in the market-places.

She kneadeth up her dough and baketh a goodly cake for her household, and to every one she giveth a piece of bread and butter of kine.

She provideth her dinner in due season, supper faileth not when the good man returneth at the end of the day, weary with his labors and the strife of men.

She looketh well to the ways of her house, and scorneth the idle woman, with her delicate hands, who lieth in bed and calleth a servant.

No two nations could differ more widely than do the English and the Scotch with regard to the choice of days of the week for marriage. The Scottish report states that the favorite day for marriage in Scotland is the last day of the year, provided it does not fall on Saturday or Sunday.

No marriages are celebrated on Sunday in Scotland, while in England it is the favorite day of the week for marriage, thirty-two per cent. of the marriages being contracted on that day. Monday is a favorite day of the week in both countries, Saturday, in England, is the third day of the week in order of selection of marriage, seventeen per cent occurring on that day; but in Scotland no true Scot will marry on Saturday, nor, indeed, begin any work of importance. With the Scot, Saturday is an unlucky day for marriage, and he is impressed with a superstitious belief that if he married on Saturday one of the parties would die before the year expires, or that, if both survived, the marriage would prove unfruitful. Hence it hapens that Sunday and Saturday, the two favorite days for marriage in England, are blank days for marriage in Scotland. Friday is the day on which the English do not marry, but in Scotland it is one of the favorite days.

LITTLE NEGLECTS DESTROY FARM PROFITS.—By neglecting to lock the stable door, the horse was stolen; by leaving a lot of old rubbish in the barnyard, one colt broke his leg, and another got a nail in his foot; in neglecting to spend half an hour in battening up the sheepfold, a pair of twin lambs froze to death; by carelessly tying the bull, the ox was gored and died; by neglecting to kill the ticks on the sheep, and lice on the cattle, the sheep became poor, shed their wool, gave no milk, and the lambs died, and a fine stock of cattle in high condition when they came to stall, lost all their flesh before spring came, were helped up by the tail and survived, while others were snaked off by the neck, a sort of retributive justice to their owners, always attached in some way to human transgression.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING!

The Democrats of Bedford county, and all others not too unreasonable to join hands with them in the great effort about to be made by the calm and thinking men of the country, to restore the Union, to bring the government back within the safe limits of the Constitution, to put an end to the political confusion which now exists, to prevent anarchy and renewed civil strife, to reinstate Republican governments in the territory now ruled by the Five Military Monarchs, to avert the calamity of Negro rule in the excluded States, and to make some certain and reasonable provision for the ultimate extinguishment of the Public Debt, are hereby invited to assemble at the Court House, on MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 2. Addresses will be delivered by distinguished speakers. Let there be a grand rally of the true friends of the Republic. Come, Democrats; Come, Conservatives; Come, reasonable "Republicans;" Come, one and all, and let us reason together.

STANTON.

We have heard of mean people, of low, contemptible, despicable, crawling dirt-eating wretches, of people who would suffer themselves to be spat upon, pulled by the nose, kicked as to the seat of their pantaloons and cuffed as to their auricular appendages; we have heard of dogs licking the hand that struck them, of swine feeding on slops dispensed to them by the man who had just driven them with the goad, nay, we have even read of one Uriah Heep, who was so "'umble" in his rascality that he would roll in any sort of dirt to accomplish his purposes; but it remained for Edwin M. Stanton to achieve that sublimated refinement of the infamy of meanness, which consists in forcing himself, as a Cabinet adviser, upon the society of the President. The long and short of what we refer to, is this: President Johnson, the other day, requested Stanton to resign the place he holds in the Cabinet as Secretary of War. A gentleman would have delivered the port folio of office to the President, instanter. Stanton didn't. If there is anything meaner under the sun, than this unmanly and ungentlemanly course of the Secretary of War, we should like to be informed what it is.

P. S. Bully for Andy Johnson! That "foot" has come down at last! Mr. E. M. Stanton has just been suspended from office, and Gen. Grant appointed Secretary of War in his stead. Stanton died hard, but he had "to surrender," as he said in his reply to the President, to "superior force." What is particularly gratifying, is the fact that Grant had no hesitation in accepting the "surender."

THE SURRATT CASE.

The trial of John H. Surratt, charged with complicity in the murder of Abraham Lincoln, has been concluded. The jury were out seventy-three hours, and at the end of that time, reported that they could not agree upon a verdict. The Court then discharged them. They stood eight for acquittal, and four for conviction. Surratt was remanded to prison, probably to be tried on some other charge. Mr. Bradley, one of the counsel for Surratt, was dismissed from the bar by Judge Fisher (the principal counsel for the prosecution) on the ground that Bradley had insulted him outside of the Court. Bradley afterwards challenged Fisher. There is great excitement in Washington, over the action of Judge Fisher. The members of the bar appear, almost unanimously, to sympathize with Bradley.

ASTOUNDING REVELATION!

Conspiracy to Involve President Johnson in the Lincoln Assassination!

Confession of One of the Conspirators!

J. M. Ashley and B. F. Butler the Ringleaders in the plot!

The Attorney General of the United States has recently come into possession of documents which show, beyond dispute, that J. M. Ashley, member of Congress from Ohio, and B. F. Butler, member of Congress from Massachusetts, the leaders of the impeachment party in Congress, had entered into a conspiracy, with one Charles A. Dunham, alias Sanford Conover, to procure suborned witnesses to prove that President Johnson was implicated in the assassination of ex-President Lincoln. This man Dunham, or Conover, is the same who was recently convicted of perjury, and who is now incarcerated in the Albany penitentiary. From the documents in possession of the Attorney General, it appears that Ashley was quietly at work to secure the pardon of Dunham, with a view, doubtless, of qualifying him as a witness against the very man who was asked to pardon him. To this end, at the suggestion of Ashley, a letter to the President recommending such pardon, was drawn up and signed by Hon. A. G. Riddle, of Ohio, and endorsed by Joseph Holt, Judge Advocate General. A petition for the same purpose, signed by Dunham himself, was also presented to the President. The recommendation signed by Riddle, is dated July 23, 1867, and its endorsement by Holt, the day following. Dunham's petition is dated July 26, 1867. Three days afterward, when Dunham discovered that he would not be pardoned and that the order for his transfer to the penitentiary had been given, he wrote out and forwarded to the President, a statement revealing the diabolical attempt of Ashley, Butler and others, to procure persons who would swear falsely to the connection of President Johnson with the plot to assassinate Lincoln. With this statement, Dunham also sent certain memoranda of what the suborned witnesses were to swear to, and a number of letters written to him by Ashley. Dunham's statement, sets forth among other things, that at the instance of Ashley and Butler, he had persons brought to the prison in which he was confined, who were willing to be suborned; that Butler and Ashley met them there; that Ashley instructed them in what they should testify; in short that Ashley and Butler, in connection with a Rev. Mr. Matchett, conspired with him, Dunham, in his prison, to procure perjured witnesses to testify against President Johnson before the Judiciary Committee. Among the things which were to be proved by this subornation, were, that J. W. Booth visited Mr. Johnson when Vice President, at the Kirkwood House; that Booth and Mr. Johnson corresponded by letter; that Booth, just after the 4th of March, stated to intimate friends in New York, that in his design to assassinate Lincoln he acted with the knowledge of Vice President Johnson. These things were actually put in the mouths of the persons whom Dunham had brought to the jail, at the instance of Ashley and Butler. Such is the account given of a most atrocious attempt to form a most infamous conspiracy against the Chief Executive of this Government. As to the truth of the statement, time will tell. Dunham, who makes the confession, was a tool in the hands of Holt, Ashley, Butler and the leading Radicals in Congress. Holt and Riddle recommend his pardon on the ground that he rendered great service, "without solicitation, in the interests of truth and justice," in the Surratt case, and Holt says, "a principle of public policy leads governments to encourage, by all honorable means, those charged with crime, to make disclosures which may and often do result in unmasking even greater offenders than those who make them." Whether Charles A. Dunham, alias Sanford Conover, has, in his disclosures just made, unmasked "even greater offenders than himself," let the people judge.

YANKEE VS. DUTCH.

We object to no man, as a candidate, for office, on account of his place of birth. So far as that is concerned, we only ask, is he now a citizen, and does he bear true allegiance to our Federal and State Governments? Hence, we do not oppose Henrry W. Williams, the Radical candidate for Supreme Judge, because he was born in Connecticut; we go beyond that fact and inquire whether he is a citizen of Pennsylvania, and whether, as such, he believes in Pennsylvania laws and institutions. Our inquiry in this regard results in this: We find Mr. Williams to be a Yankee in political opinions and opposed to the theory of our State Constitution. He believes in that vague and uncertain doctrine, "the higher law," and, therefore, is unfit to sit as an arbiter of questions arising under the fundamental law of the State. His notions of "higher law" might at any time lead him to substitute his own opinions in the stead of the State Constitution. A person holding such views is a Pennsylvanian only in name; he is a New England political transcendentalist; a restless, malignant reformer, who is unwilling to hold fast that which is good, but advocates "progress," though he stupidly progresses backward, like a miserable crab, and succeeds only in disturbing and destroying civil society. In order to show that Mr. Williams is really this sort of man, we give the following, which comes to us as having been first published by the Salem (Mass.) Journal:

"The nomination of Judge Williams for the Supreme Court, in Pennsylvania, by the Radical Republicans, is another acknowledgment on the part of the stolid Dutch elements of the superiority of New England men. Judge Williams is a native of Connecticut, and received his early training in the higher law doctrines of our section. We have been reliably informed that he has in nowise apostatized from his fathers or the true principles governing the rights of man, but that he steadfastly retains his affection for New England institutions. Those are the sort of men whom we love to see elevated to power in the Dutch Middle States and over the half civilized people of the West. They constitute the ark of safety for the material interests of our section, and in no instance, where money can effect anything, should the people of New England be sparing of their means in securing the nomination and election of such men as Judge Williams.

"Pennsylvania—poor, ignorant, stupid, old Dutch state—regardless of the hissing of copperheads, is now pretty thoroughly 'Yankeeized.' Thaddeus Stevens, a native of Vermont, and a man true to his faith, holds the political elements of the State in the hollow of his hand, and, on a fair ballot of the rank and file of the party, would have been made United States Senator. The Superintendent of Common Schools is by birth and education a New Englander, and it is fair to persume that the next crop of Dutch voters will be as completely 'Yankeeized' as it is possible to effect out of such unpromising materiál. We understand, also, that each annual legislature is composed of New England men, and that more than one-half the present delegation in Congress are natives of our section, but of this we are not quite positive. Taking matters on the whole, the out look in Pennsylvania is as favorable for New England ideas and supremacy as could be wished."

Reader, do you prefer a Supreme Judge, who will decide questions of law, according to New England Yankee notions, or one who will determine such questions agreeably to the Constitution and Laws of Pennsylvania? Your vote, at the coming election, will be the answer to this question.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS,
CLEARFIELD, PA., August 7, 1867.

To the People of Pennsylvania.

The Democratic organization, devoted to the maintenance of its immortal principles; conscious of its duty to them, and to the Republic; proud of its years, its triumphs and its heroism in disaster, and remembering that in the face of persecution, of official frowns, of corrupt appliances and of successive defeats, its numbers have steadily increased; again presents to you its candidate for your suffrages.

The Republican party has controlled the government for six years and we accuse it before you, because:

In the sacred name of Union, it has perpetuated disunion;

In the room of the blessings of peace, it has given us hate, discord and misery;

It has violated the plainest principles of government, broken the written Constitution, and only yielded obedience to the behests of party;

The people are denied the attribute of sovereignty; the military subverts the civil power; generals remove governors elected by the people, and a despotism resigns in ten States;

Congress assumes the right to say that negroes shall vote in Pennsylvania, and denies to us the right to regulate our own rule of suffrage;

The negro, is by law, made the equal of the white man in all public places, and authorized to hold office and sit on juries in the capital.

The destinies of ten States, and of ten millions of white people therein, are, by Congress and the military power, placed under the control of four millions of blacks.

Their reckless expenditure of the public money in their conduct of the government, in the support and organization of hundreds of thousands of idle negroes, in the employment of hordes of unnecessary spies and officials, and in maintaining military power over the submissive south, endangers and delays the payment of the public debt of twenty-seven hundred millions of dollars—to which the public faith is pledged;

Their gross mismanagement causes taxation to bear heavily upon the people. In 1860, one dollar and sixty cents per head were paid by the people thro' the customs; in 1866, fourteen dollars per head were drawn, mainly from the consumption and business of the poorer classes, through the customs and internal revenue. In 1860, each individual owed two dollars and six cents of the public debt; in 1867, each owes seventy-nine dollars and fifty cents thereof. In 1860, the expenses of the government were sixty-two millions; in 1867, the Treasury estimates them at two hundred and twenty-five millions, independent of interest on the debt, both being periods of peace. Pennsylvania's share of the public debt is two hundred and seventy-five millions, her own debt thirty-five and a half millions, and her city and county indebtedness will swell the total to four hundred millions. Twenty-five millions annually come from your earnings to pay the interest thereon. In 1860, your State government cost you four hundred and two thousand dollars; whilst in 1866, it cost you six hundred and sixty-nine thousand dollars;

The pressure of these exhausting burthens and the suicidal policy of Congess, have caused uncertainty and depression to pervade all branches of trade and manufactures.

Our commerce is suffering, the enterprise of our people is repressed and business interests languish;

The revenues of the government are less than its interest and expenses, and the financial officer foreshadows an increase of the public debt;

They plot the destruction of our form of government, by destroying the independence of the Executive, attempting to subordinate the judiciary and by concentrating all power in the legislative branch;

Robbing the people of sovereign power, they have united it with the government in Congress, and dealt a fatal blow at our liberties, for tyranny may be as absolute in a number of persons as in an individual.

Unblushing corruption stalks thro' every department of the government under their control.

For these and kindred wrongs we arraign them, and as the representative of antagonism to each of them, we present to you our candidate for the Supreme Bench:

GEORGE SHARSWOOD—a Pennsylvanian, a man of pure morals, a profound thinker, a sound lawyer and a jurist of national reputation. It has been the rule of his official conduct to yield obedience to written law, and neither party necessity nor corrupting influence can sway him from his duty to fearlessly proclaim it.

His opponent, HENRY W. WILLIAMS, is a native of New England, and is comparatively unknown to our people. Prior to his nomination he was said to be a worthy gentleman and an able lawyer. He has accepted a nomination upon a platform by which he is pledged "TO PLACE THE SUPREME COURT IN HARMONY WITH THE POLITICAL OPINIONS OF THE MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE." This destroys his independence and "holds the Judge accountable to a political party for his construction of the law, and inevitably tempts him to sacrifice his integrity; to become the meanest of all creatures—a sworn minister of justice obedient to the dictates of politicians."

The independent and fearless judge protects your life, your liberty and your property. With which of these men will you trust them?

DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA:

We call upon you to organize in every section of the State. Act for yourselves, promptly and vigorously. Wait for no man. The government you love is in danger, its great cardinal doctrines are daily attacked, and "treason in peace may prove more deadly than treason in war." Individual exertion is the duty of every man. Canvass your school districts. Form clubs.—Circulate your local papers. Teach the people. Counsel with the aged. Encourage the timid. Arouse the sluggish. Stop talking and go to work. The enemy are vulnerable at every point; attack them for their misdeeds.

YOUR PRINCIPLES ARE ETERNAL AND MUST PREVAIL.

By order of the Democratic State Committee.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
Chairman.

THE Philadelphia Press is decidedly astute. It says that the Democrats regarded the Dred Scott decision as "the perfection of human reason," but think it a "terrible crime for judges to be in accord with the political sentiment of the age." The Press and other Abolition journals have always told us that the Dred Scott decision was contrary to "the political sentiment of the age." If they told the truth in this regard, how can there be any parallel between the attitude of the Democratic party toward that decision, and the position in which the Abolition party are placed in respect to the Judiciary, by the Williamsport Convention? Surely the Democratic party never, in any platform, demanded that any court should decide any question of law in accordance with the opinions held by that party. Democrats acquiesced in the Dred Scott decision, because the highest Judicial authority of the country pronounced it to be the law. But they never asked that such a decision should be made because it would be "in accord with the political sentiment of the age." This is the God's truth and we defy the Press to controvert it.

DEATH OF EX-GOV. PORTER.

Ex-Governor David R. Porter died, at his residence in Harrisburg, on the fifth inst. Gov. Porter was a native of Huntingdon county, which he represented in the Legislature several years. He was the first Governor under the amended Constitution, and held the office six years. The name of David R. Porter needs no eulogy. Pennsylvania has lost a noble son, but our loss is, doubtless, his gain.

THE State election in Louisville and throughout Kentucky, as far as heard from, passed quietly. The result has been a Rebel triumph, by a majority variously estimated at 30,000 to 60,000.—Inquirer.

We ask the attention of the Democrats of Bedford county, to the peculiarity of the language employed by the Bedford Inquirer, in announcing a Democratic victory. According to that sheet Democrats are rebels. Stick a pin there, boys! When sly Mr. J. R. Jordan and other candidates on the Radical ticket, come sneaking around to beg your votes, you'll remember that they are entirely too "loyal" to thank rebels for their support.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.—FIVE HUNDRED AGENTS WANTED TO SELL THE "YOUTH'S OR PEOPLE'S HISTORY OF THE WAR."—This is the only history from a Democratic standpoint, and can be relied on as truthful in every respect. No family should be without it. Also, 500 agents are wanted to sell a work entitled "Nojoque," written by Hinton Rowan Helper, author of the "Impending Crisis." This work, although written by a Republican," and one of Mr. Lincoln's own pets, is worthy the careful perusal of every Democrat and honest "Republican." It stigmatizes the ruling majority in Congress as the "Execrable two thirds majority of the Black Congress" that ought to be despised and spurned by every genuine lover of the pure Caucasian race. The Negro equality and Negro Suffrage question is handled in an able manner by the author. Let every man in this county who is opposed to Despotism, and also the social and political equality of the white and black races, secure a copy of each of these works, at the first opportunity. With these works you will be prepared to combat successfully every argument of the White and Black Negro Party in favor of the despotic measures passed by the Black Congress, and of its negro equality doctrine.—Those desiring agencies for either of the aboved named works will please call on MR. E. W. MILLER, who can be found at the Mengel House, in this place, from this time until the 25th of this month. Both works are meeting with very rapid sales, and no young man out of employment can do better than to secure an agency at once.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—The September number of this favorite parlor periodical is fully equal to any of those which have preceded it. The illustrations are varied, and brilliant as ever, and there is a tone of freshness and originality about the entire contents which contrasts remarkably with other parlor publications. We do not wonder ladies prize it; to them it is full of useful and interesting reading and information, besides containing many valuable specialites, in the way of patterns, etc., which can be got from no other source. Three dollars per annum, with a premium. Address, W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 473 Broadway, New York.

SPLENDID PRIZES IN GREENBACKS.—Over $5,000 in Greenbacks; $10,000 in Sewing Machines; $9000 in Washing Machines; a vast amount of Hoop Skirts, Albums, Books, Gold Pens, Pencils, Lockets, &c., &c., to be distributed to the subscribers and purchasers of the 'HOME AMUSEMENT.' —All the Federal dead, numbering nearly five hundred, recently deposited on the site on Whitehead's farm selected for a National Cemetery, have all been removed to Fortress Monroe, and the ground has been properly leveled and put in order. The burial corps are now disinterring around Suffolk and transporting the bodies as fast as possible to the new cemetery at the fort.

—The deaths at Galveston, Texas, from yellow fever are eight per day.—Judge Dougherty, of Texas, has been removed by Sheridan; and Thos. E. Adams, Chief of Police, of New Orleans.

—A train of emigrants who went to Oregon two years ago, reached Julesburg, July 22d, on their way back to Illinois and Pennsylvania. They say Oregon is a great wheat and vegetable growing country. The soil is rich, but there is no market for farming products, and consequently the Oregonians cannot accumulate fortunes.

—Work on the St. Paul and Winona section of the St. Paul and Chicago Railway is to be begun immediately. Nearly ten miles are already graded.

—The work of changing the North Missouri Railroad from a broad to a narrow guage for the distance of one hundred and seventy miles, to Macon, was finished in four days.

—A sudden reduction has been made in the working force at the Springfield (Mass.) Armory, in consequence of an order to reduce the production of breech-loaders to two hundred a day.

—German Baptist churches are multiplying. There are now in the United States and Canada eighty of these churches. Twenty years ago there were only eight.

—An artesian well has been sunk in St. Louis to the depth of two thousand two hundred and forty feet, and the boring is still going on. The water brought up is saltish and sulphury.

PROOFS OF THE SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE AMERICAN WATCH MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

The American Watch Company, of Waltham, Mass., respectfully submit that their Watches are cheaper, more accurate, less complex, more durable, better adapted for general use, and more easily kept in order and repaired than any other watches in the market. They are simpler in structure, and therefore stronger, and less likely to be injured than the majority of foreign watches, which are composed of from 125 to 300 pieces, while in an old English watch there are more than 700 parts. How they run under the hardest trial watches can have, is shown by the following letter:

PENN. RAILROAD COMPANY,
OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT, ALTOONA, Pa., 15 Dec., 1866.

Gentlemen: The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this railroad for several years by our enginemen, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment. There are now some three hundred of them carried on our line, and we consider them good and reliable time-keepers. Indeed, I have great satisfaction in saying your watches give us less trouble, and have worn and do wear much longer without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road As you are aware, we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation; but as a class they never keep time as correctly, nor have they done as good service as yours.

In these statements I am sustained by my predecessor, Mr. Lewis, whose experience extended over a series of years.

Respectfully,
EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,
General Superintendent.

American Watch Co., Waltham.

We make now five different grades of watches, named respectively as follows:

APPLETON, TRACY & CO.,	Waltham, Mass.
WALTHAM WATCH COMPANY,	Waltham, Mass.
P. S. BARTLETT,	Waltham, Mass.
WM. ELLERY,	Boston, Mass.
HOME WATCH COMPANY,	Boston, Mass.

All of these, with the exception of the Home Watch Company, are warranted by the American Watch Company to be of the best material, on the most approved principle, and to possess every requisite for a reliable time-keeper. Every dealer selling these watches is provided with the Company's printed card of guarantee, which should accompany each Watch sold, so that buyers may feel sure that they are purchasing the genuine article. There are numerous counterfeits and imitations of our Watches sold throughout the country, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against imposition.

Any grades of Waltham Watches may be purchased of Watch Dealers throughout the country.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—A SUBSTITUTE FOR CALOMEL.—These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.

In all bilious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and billiary ducts, which are the cause of billious affections in general.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills cure Sick Headache, and all disorders of the Liver, indicated by sallow skin, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of weariness and lassitude, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.

In short, these Pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all druggists and dealers; price $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Some poor devil of an author, in the agony of his spirit, once exclaimed, "Oh! that mine enemy would write a book!" Had he lived in the borough of Bedford, in the year of grace 1867, he would have said, "Oh! that mine enemy were the local editor of the Bedford Inquirer!" I think I have the advantage of the fellow who wanted to have his foe become a book-maker. I live in the borough of Bedford, in the year 1867, and mine enemy is Grandmother Grumble, the "local" of the Bedford Inquirer. Poor old lady! How she snaps and scolds, and spirts and sputters, and frets and fumes!

"More peevish, cross and splenetic,
Than dog distaught, or monkey sick!"

Just hear her snarl! Says Grumble, says she, "whenever you find a man" (of course a man—the poor crabbed old thing can't abide anything manly) "that takes sides with a monopoly, you may be assured he does so to the advancement of his own private or precuniary interests." Why, she is so mad, is Grumble, that she got that r cross-wise in her mouth! Well, who takes sides with a monopoly?—Hold your tongue just for a minute, Granny, and let me get a word in edge-wise, now, will you?—Who takes sides with a monopoly? The Bedford Inquirer used to call the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad Company "a monopoly" and grumbled about it weekly, just as it does now about the Springs and the Hackmen. Well!—Keep still, will you, just a minute, you garrulous Grumble?—Well! The Bedford Inquirer doesn't complain of that Railroad Company as it once did—not much, it doesn't—on the other hand it bespatters it with praise, lays on its commendations thick.—Hold on, Granny!—Ahem! Is there any "advancement" of any body's "private or precuniary interests" in the neighborhood of the Inquirer office? And again—please don't interrupt me, termagant!—Well, what is it?

"The question is, who pays the Gazette for defending our local nuisances?"

Oh! that's where you are! The GAZETTE has never defended you, Granny, and you are generally considered the greatest "nuisance" in this part of God's moral vineyard. Of course, you refer to my defence of the Springs and the Hackmen against your miserable vituperation. You call the Springs and the Hackmen "nuisances!" Why? what is your motive for indulging in this unwarranted abuse? Who pays you for your scurrility? Now, Mrs. Grumble, of the Inquirer, your ill-timed complaints have done positive injury not only to the Bedford Springs, but to all the boarding houses in this neighborhood. Persons who intended coming here, changed their minds after seeing articles from a Bedford paper, decrying the management of the Springs. Of course, they didn't know that you couldn't tell the truth.—Don't flare up, now! Keep cool, Granny, keep cool!—But public opinion has settled down to the conclusion, that you are a peevish, petulant, impertinent, self-conceited, hysterical humbug of an old hag, and—I am QUI?

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Do not consider me as "grumbling" when I call the attention of the Borough authorities to the terribly dusty condition of the business streets of Bedford, especially Julianna. The streets could certainly be kept free from dust at a very little cost, by sprinkling in the morning. Not only store-keepers complain, but the people who reside on those streets say they cannot any longer endure this terrible nuisance. If the authorities cannot afford a sprinkler, let them pass an ordinance, if they have none already, prohibiting sports and others from driving at break-neck speed. But your space is precious and I will say no more at present. Yours,

JONES.

"Jones'" complaint is not without reason. We have noticed some rather fast driving on our streets, of late. It produces dust, and aged and decrepit persons and children cannot with safety cross the streets. Something should be done to limit driving on our streets to a reasonable speed.

"THE MOST UNKINDEST CUT OF ALL."—We are well aware that the Inquirer is hostile to a certain standing candidate for the Abolition nomination for Governor, who doesn't live a thousand miles from here. But the following from that paper of last week, is "the most unkindest cut of all!"

"Where ever you find a man that takes sides with a monopoly, you may be assured he does so to the advancement of his own private or precuniary interests."

GUM ROLLER GRAIN DRILL.—There are about 300 Gum Roller Drills in use in our county; all have given satisfaction. Hartley & Metzger have sold about 50 this season. Well informed farmers will buy no other but Willoughby's Patent Gum Roller Drill.

EVERYBODY should go to Berkstresser's who is in want of cheap Hats, Caps, Clothing, and the best furnishing goods in Bedford.—Their Hats are superior in manufacture to any we have seen, and prices are right. Every body buys 'em.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.—At a regular stated meeting of Cove Lodge No. 368, I. O. of O. F., held on Saturday evening, August 3d, 1867, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in the dispensation of his allwise providence, to removed from among us the wife of our Brother, Thomas M. Snowden,

WHEREAS, This sad event is very painful to our mourning Brother, being the greatest trial which he has ever experienced—the loss of one most dear to him, and

WHEREAS, The character, life and virtues of the deceased were of such purity, and her kindness and affection toward our beloved Brother, such that the loss of his life companion brings him great affliction and trouble, and condolence and sympathy being much needed, therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby tender to our sadly bereaved Brother our heartfelt sympathy in this the hour of his affliction, and we commend him to our Heavenly Father who doth not afflict willingly, for that comfort which earthly friends cannot give; The Lord gave and the Lord taketh away.

Resolved, That we condole with the relations of our Brother who, by her death, have been deprived of an affectionate Sister or Friend.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to our afflicted Brother and copies be sent to the Bedford Inquirer and BEDFORD GAZETTE, with a request that they be published.

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—A new and dangerous counterfeit— National currency—5's denomination—has recently been put in circulation, which will most likely mislead careless handlers of money, and even the careful without close observance. On the left end of the note the wrist of the left arm of Columbus is scarcely visible, whereas in the genuine it is distinct. At top read "this note is secured by bonds." The letters "B" and "Y" are too far apart and the "O" in "Bonds" is under the "Y," whereas the "B" in the same word is imediately under the "Y" in the genuine. The general appearance of the bill is a close imitation of the genuine.

ANTIDOTE FOR POISON—WORTH KNOWING.—Poison of any conceivable description and degree of potency which has been swallowed intentionally or by accident, may be rendered almost instantaneously harmless by swallowing two gills of sweet oil. An individual with a strong constitution should take twice the quantity. This oil will neutralize every form of vegetable or mineral poison with which physicians and chemists are acquainted.

EAGLE PENNIES.—No Premium on Them.—For some time, a number of persons have been hoarding up the nickel penies, known as the eagle or buzzard penny of 1858, under the belief that the coin was worth a premium of 30 per cent. A letter from Secretary of the Treasury states that they are quoted the same as other pennies, and that the rumored premium is nothing but a dodge on the part of certain parties to dispose of their nickels at an advantage.

WE DON'T BELIEVE IT.—The acknowledged organ of fashionable society in our country, the Home Journal, says "the handsomest lady in America is Miss Emily Schonberg, of Philadelphia." We don't believe it. We will guarantee that we can trot out several brace of brilliant belles in Bedford who can beat her easy.

EMINENT DIVINES.—Rt. Rev. Bishop Stevens, of the Episcopal Church, administered the rite of Confirmation, in this place, on Sunday evening last. Rev. John Chambers, of Philadelphia, preached in the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday morning.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—Hon. Simon Cameron, U.S. Senator from Pennsylvania, is at present sojourning at the Springs.

—Ireland has over 12,000 military policemen.

MARRIED.

OLER—KLAHRE—On the 7th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, by the Rev. G. C. Probst, Mr. James Oler of West Providence tp., and Miss Louisa Klahre of Bloody Run.

HUZZARD—CROMWELL—In the Methodist Church, on Wednesday, July 31st, by Rev. B. G. W. Reed, Mr. Philip Huzzard and Miss. Wilhelmina Cromwell, both of this place.

The above notice was not handed us, last week, or it should have appeared then. We take pleasure in tendering the happy couple our hearty congratulations and our best wishes for that future upon which they have so auspiciously entered.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—Geo. W. Morgan. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—Wm. A. Johnson. Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class—Geo. Jardine, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and he best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. Heintz, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—Bishop Simpson.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—Independent.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—Methodist.

Publications.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These The World always aims to give with consciencious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interst, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of The World for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. The World will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of coarse, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. The World adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, The World will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of The World, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, The World will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the The World prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The Weekly World, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York Argus has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the Weekly World.
The Semi-Weekly World is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.
The Daily World affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.
